

Student assistants (m/f/d) for teaching and other areas of activity wanted at the earliest possible date

Our profile

We are an internationally orientated department that focuses on the topics of market- and innovation-oriented corporate management, marketing and personnel management. With the aim of combining a high academic standard with practical relevance, we organise our teaching and continuously carry out exciting research projects.

Your tasks

We are looking for student assistants to support us in various areas of the department. Exemplary tasks are

- Support in research (e.g. in the form of research)
- Support with exam supervision and correction

Your profile

- Strong interest in topics such as user innovation, modular design, and the healthcare industry
- Interest in qualitative research
- Fluency in both English and German (spoken and written) is required

Are you interested?

Then please send your application documents (CV and current transcript of records) by e-mail to Diana Cervera (diana.cervera@bwl.tu-darmstadt.de)

We look forward to receiving your application!