

Student Assistants (m/f/d) 20-40h / month

Our Profile

We are an internationally oriented chair that focuses on topics at the interface between innovation, human resource management and technology. With the aim of combining high scientific standards with practical relevance, we develop our teaching and continuously carry out exciting research projects.

Your Tasks

We are looking for student assistants to support us at the chair for various tasks starting from July over the course of the summer months. The tasks are conducted directly in Darmstadt.

Your Profile

If the following characteristics apply to you, you are exactly right in our team and we are looking forward to your application!

- High flexibility on several days per week during the next months.
- Enthusiasm for new technologies
- Creativity and openness for innovative ideas
- High resilience
- Ability to work independently and in a structured manner

Are you interested?

If so, please send your application documents (including a letter of motivation, curriculum vitae and current transcript of records):

„lea.heitlinger@bwl.tu-darmstadt.de“.

We are looking forward to your application!